

Communication Skills and Soft Skills Development Course

Communication skills and Soft skills play a key role in legal profession. In addition to hard skills and subject expertise, communication skills and soft skills such as verbal and non- verbal communication skills, writing skills, leadership skills, teamwork, interpersonal skills and problem solving skills reflect the individual's personality and help in career growth. In the present scenario, it is essential to hone these skills of law students to pave the way to success in their career. For inculcating communication skills and soft skills in them, they have to be trained to develop their personality and enable them to secure a decent position in their career particularly in corporate world. This training to the students of law assists them with personal and professional development, improve their trial and leadership skills and ensure their placements.

The college runs Communication Skills and Soft Skills Development Course for the students of Ist Year of B.A. LL.B (5 Year) course to develop their personality and enhance their employability. During this course, the students are trained in correct use of grammar and vocabulary and they also participate in various activities such as debates, group discussions, mock interviews, role plays etc. Thus this course helps in boosting the confidence of the students to become successful in life as well as in legal profession.