

M.C.E. Society's A.K.K. New Law Academy, Pune

Institutional Distinctiveness

The College focuses towards the education and development of the socially, financially and culturally weaker sections of society and Muslims in particular.

The college operates Centralized Admission process for both 3 years and 5 years Law course by State of Maharashtra. The college is surrounded by a poor and middle class habitation. This policy ensures that the students living in the vicinity of the college are accommodated. As most students come from the socially and financially weaker sections of the society. Thus organizing a variety of activities is one of the best practices of the college.

The college also rewards the efforts of the students by distributing a large number of prizes for the various activities, thus building the confidence of the students. The college informs students about the availability of various scholarship schemes.

The teachers have a poor fund to which each teacher contributes and the same is utilized to sponsor the education of some needy students.

The management too sponsors the fees of needy students. As the students are first generation learners, the college has to involve the parents in their growth, progress and achievement.

Student toppers are felicitated at the annual prize distribution function together with the parents. The entire college campus is Wi Fi enabled.

All students are provided with free wifi on their mobile phones or tablets. The focus of education is technology based and all efforts are on to provide the students with state of the art, information technology infrastructure and skill sets.
