

Placement Cell

Every body is apprehensive that the sphere of law profession is fleetly growing. The students look for the proper placement in the profession, incontinently after completing their scale. There's ample compass for the students to decide as to whether junior practitioner or to join the judiciary. The students have also option to join the commercial sector, way of legal adjunct or legal counsel etc. The students have also option to join the corporate sector, way of legal assistant or legal adviser etc. The Placement cell facilitates the reclamation process of the students. This process begins about six months before the completion of the LL.B. course. It is the experience of the cell that majority of the students opt for juniorship in the legal profession, approaching the senior advocates and the practicing ex- students of the college. The students are encouraged to undergo practical training with the senior advocates. The cell helps the students approach the senior advocates practicing at various courts. For placement in judiciary and in corporate sector, students are motivated and helped for submitting applications or explaining them the requirement of the particular corporate field or preparing them giving special coaching for exams , if required. The students are needed to register themselves with the Cell to mileage them of this support service
